

Privacy Policy

BALTIC INVESTMENTS GROUP based in European Union (EU) has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to our visitors and participants privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for our web site.

1. Collection of Information

Information is collected from our users at several different points during their visit to our site.

At various other points during your visit to our site, you may be asked to provide information about yourself. Participation in, or the use of, other services that require the input of additional information is completely voluntary on your part, and you have the choice about whether to disclose the information necessary to use these features of our site.

In addition to the information that you actively provide to us, we collect information about how you interact with our site. We collect passive information in order to improve your experience at the site and to compile broad aggregate demographic data and related usage information for internal purposes and for disclosure to third parties, such as advertisers and content partners. The types of passive information collected by this site may include IP addresses, the type of browser being used, pages visited, and how long a user stays on our site.

2. Use of Information

We may use your information in order to customize our site and enhance your overall experience at our site. We try to recognize you using various methods. Once we recognize you, pages, advertisements and other content are customized for you so that you can see what interests you most. In addition, as described above, we utilize passive information to learn more about how you interact with our site. This passive information may be combined with your other information for purposes such as testing and improving your experience at our site and the compilation of broad aggregate demographic data and related usage information for internal purposes and for disclosure to third parties, such as advertisers and content partners. This aggregate passive information does not contain any personal information that can identify an individual user.

We may use your contact information periodically in order to send you e-mails regarding updates to our site and our services. The frequency of these messages will vary depending upon your profile. In addition, we may send you free informational newsletters or notices relating to topics that may be of special interest to you. Finally, if you specifically provide us with permission at the time of registration, you may also receive commercial e-mails. Out of respect for the privacy of our users, we allow you to opt-out of receiving newsletters and/or commercial e-mails whenever such messages are sent by us, as described below. E-mail messages from third parties are not governed by the opt-out provisions of this Privacy Policy, but all such third parties are strongly encouraged to include opt-out procedures in their messages to you.

3. Sharing Information

We will not knowingly sell, share, rent or otherwise transfer your information other than in accordance with the terms set forth in this Privacy Policy.

We may ask you whether information about you may be sent to third parties who have products, services and opportunities which may be useful to you. We understand how important your information is to you. Therefore, we do not share any information that can be tied to you without your permission. If you give your permission to allow third parties to contact you, personal information about you (such as your contact information and other information collected during your visit to our site) may be shared with data aggregators, marketers (possibly in the form of list rental), and other organizations. Regardless of your decision regarding the sharing of your personal information, we may share broad aggregate demographic data and related usage information with our business partners. This aggregate information does not contain any personal information that can identify an individual user.

From time to time, we may decide that it is more efficient to use third parties to perform specific services, such as sending newsletters to our users. If we use a third party to provide specific services, then information (such as contact information) may be shared with that party to the extent necessary for the third party to provide these services. These third party service providers are only allowed to use personally identifiable information for the purpose of providing the specific services requested by us. The third party services covered by this paragraph do not include links to third party sites found on our site.

While we strive to protect the personal information of its users, we will release personal information if required by law or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary or appropriate.

4. Cookies

We use a browser feature known as a cookie, which is placed on your computer to make our site more responsive to your needs, by delivering a better and more personalized experience to you. The cookies are stored on your computer's hard drive and are used by us to help track your clicks and pass information as you go through the pages within our Web site. Cookies can allow us to associate navigational information from browsing visits with personal information you provide at our site.

In addition, we carefully select third party advertising companies and allow them to collect non-personally identifiable information by placing cookies when you choose to visit them and when you visit our site. These selected companies may use information (but not including your name, address, credit card information, e-mail address, or telephone number) about your choice to visit and your visits to our site and other Web sites to provide advertisements about our products and services on this and other web sites. If you would like more information about this practice and to know your choices about no longer having information from these third party cookies used by these companies or provided to.

5. Security

We have implemented suitable security policies, rules and technical measures to protect and safeguard the personal data under our control from unauthorized access, improper use or disclosure, unauthorized modification, unlawful destruction or accidental loss. All our employees and data processors that have access to, and are associated with the processing of your personal information, are obliged to respect the confidentiality of your information.

6. Links to Other Sites

Our site may contain links to other sites. Other sites may also reference or link to our site. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such other sites.

7. General Provisions

We provide information on cosmetics and beauty related matters. Some of this information is created by us, and some of it is created by third parties. While our site strives to provide accurate expert advice, commentary and other information, we do not make any warranty regarding the accuracy, reliability, correctness or use of any information provided on this site.

In the event that we may sell, assign or transfer some or all of its business to a successor or acquirer, we may sell, assign or transfer all of your information, regardless of your opt status, to such successor or acquirer.

8. Your Acceptance of this Policy

By visiting this site or receiving services, you signify your assent to our then-current Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use our site or Services. We reserve the right, at our discretion, to change, modify, add, or remove portions from this policy at any time. Your continued use of our site following the posting of changes to these terms means you accept these changes.
